DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on October 31, 2007, has been entered.

Response to Amendment

2. Applicant's amendment filed with the RCE has been entered. Claims 45-47 and 59-61 have been amended as requested. Claims 1-44, 50-52, and 64-66 have been cancelled. Thus, the pending claims are 45-49, 53-63, and 67-72, with claims 45-47 and 59-61 being independent claims.

3. Said amendment has incorporated the limitations of cancelled claims 50-52 and 64-66 into independent claims 45-47 and 59-61, respectively. While the subject matter of claims 50-52 and 64-66 (i.e., an average fiber diameter of the high-modulus fibers is 5 times or more an average fiber diameter of the fine fibers), was previously rejected along with the independent claims as being obvious over JP 2000-160432 issued to Aikawa, said amendment is sufficient to overcome said rejection set forth in section 4 of the last Office Action. Applicant has provided arguments and a Declaration under 37 CFR 1.132 which support the allowable subject matter of said amendment.

4. Specifically, applicant's argues three points, the third being of unexpected results (holding capacity of liquid under pressure) achieved from the average fiber diameter ratio of 5 or more as recited in the independent claims. The combination of these arguments with the evidence provided in the 132 Declaration have been found persuasive of the patentable distinction between the present invention and the Aikawa invention. Note applicant's arguments at the paragraph spanning pages 10-11, page 12, 1st and 2nd paragraphs, and Table 1 of the Declaration. As such, the Aikawa rejection is hereby withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. An updated search of the prior art has produced no new art of record for which to base a rejection upon.
6. Therefore, claims 45-49, 53-63, and 67-72 are allowed.
7. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion
